CITY AND DISTRICT.
"All run down" from weakening effects of warm weather, you need a good tonic and blood purifier like Hood's Sarsaparilla. Try it.

A Law suit will be given at the residence of Mr. G. S. Johnson, College Street, on the evening of Friday, August 17th. Good literary programme, refreshments etc. in aid of Bristle Mission, north of O.T.R. station. Admission 10c.

Rev. Gray and Stratton take their annual excursion to the 1000 Islands, per steamer, on Saturday, Aug. 18th, return on Monday. Leave Belleville at 7:15 a.m. Tickets only $1.00. The best day of the season at the Park.

Be sure and put a box of Ayer's ointment before travelling either by land or sea. You will find them convenient, efficacious and safe. The best remedy for cutaneous eruptions, itching, headache, and adapted to any climate.

The Chitties pay their debt only so long as they keep their heads. They believe in preventing rather than curing. This is sound sense, and one of the strongest recommendations of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, a medicine which not only cures but prevents them.

Some surprising effects have been recorded from the use of Hood's Sarsaparilla. One Liver Oil in the most desperate case of consumption. Miller's Emulsion in "the bad kind" of cough, colds, bronchitis and lung diseases generally. Every bottle warranted. No city takes like others. In big bottles, 50c and $1.00 bottles.

AN UNUSUAL DEATH—At the season of the year there are always many deaths, particularly among children, from Diphtheria, Cholera, Cholera Morbus, Cramps, etc., but this season the cause seems to be unusually frequent and fatal, and the fact is known that a sure and speedy cure can easily be obtained by taking a teaspoonful of Peppermint and Eucalypti in warm water (hot water is the best), every half hour until relieved. This remedy has never been known to fail, and is directed with each bottle. It is kept by every respectable druggist. New big bottle old popular 25c. price.

Vigilant Beaten Again.
Lorson, Aug. 15.—Bridal, Vigilant and Bannock met in the city today on the Rye "Jail of Wight" town camp. The distance was 50 miles. Bannock won with Bannock second and Vigilant last.

"Old Orchard."
"Old Orchard," the residence of Mr. D. P. Jones, promises to be his location for Friday night. The Old Orchard will play for the first time many new and beautiful selections which they are to play at Canada's greatest exhibition.

They Have a Point.
The residents of Dundas and east of Church St., are complaining, and not without cause, at the condition of their street. There is no fresh air, and the road and when the wind blows they cannot leave a door or window open. One resident of the street says everything in his house is ruined by dust. They want the dirt scraped off.

A Sad Mission.
Mr. and Mrs. James Hall and their remaining daughter, Miss Mary, of Oshawa, N. Y., arrived in the city today on the 14:45 train, bringing with them the body of their young daughter, who died in the city in the month of May. This is the second time in three months Mr. Hall has come to Canada on such a sad errand. The deceased daughter, of Oshawa, Ontario, being in the second year of her life. Mr. and Mrs. Hall have the sympathy of a large circle of friends having for some years been residents of this city.

A Runaway on Front Street.
Farmers who will not pay for stable room in a hotel stable, but instead take the back yards of business men, should take a lesson from the experience of a runaway named Simpson. On Wednesday morning, his team were in the yard behind Thompson's hardware store and he, being frightened, ran up the gateway north of the Spadina street and across Front St. They were treated and run down the lamp post at Hotel St. As the team dashed the driver to which they were harnessed. It will cost the owner $100 to make the repairs. There is a moral in this.

"I want to recover the sum I made you give me," said the man. "My father never knew that his child was indebted to a robber king. Will you sell these pearls for me, and give me the money?"

"I will do any other way of making up the amount," they are my very own; my aunt will give me the pearls, and I will give you the money back. How could I meet him with the money on my conscience?"

"I will do it," said the man, and he was so reassured. "The notes I gave you were my own, withdrawn from a savings bank yesterday." "I will give you the pearls," said the man, and he took back your pearls, dear Miss Aladdin, and snuffer me to your ordinator and the present of the pearls, and I will give you the money in any emergency."

She tried to force the ornaments upon him, and feeling that her heart was full, her brain was in a whirl. The words she would have spoken could not be heard, and she extended her hand to receive the pearls.

"Dear Mr. Valio, you returned to town before my daughter so seriously ill, as to be unable to recognize him."

When we decided to add the manufacture of carriages, phaetons, of each. As we decided to place no vehicle on the market which is not of the best quality, and knowing that no first-class vehicle can be produced cheaply, it has been necessary for us to take sufficient time to produce what we think at. We there having succeeded; and we now have a few remained, and others nearing completion to offer for sale. The iron work hand-forged; the wood-work carefully made, and strongly secured; and the painting and upholstering done with the best material and greatest

"And she did recover rapidly as soon as she was able to get up, and I discovered to my amazement that she was the merriest of playfellows to the widow's children, and the most devoted of mothers to her own. I told Mrs. Leonard.

"And she began to say things that make me ashamed to prolong my stay with you, as she wishes me to do, she observed once, and she said that she was the cause of your keeping your relatives away from the Willows.

"I told her that both my relatives left, was the reply. "A married sister indeed, and my youngest brother, the dear one, had been married to a girl who was my husband so suddenly, I think I must have sunk under my troubles.

"I told her of the friends of whom the little one told so lovingly. Every day I am sure that some of my relatives are here now. BELLEVILLE - ONT.

“But my brother is not a Lescarac, as you say. His name is—Gibbert—Waltie.”

Quig shaded her face for a while, and then she looked at the girl with a pang or shudder the event connected with her brief infatuation for her unworthy lover.

It would indeed bring suffering on her to name one who knew all that had occurred, and who would tell the truth to the world. However, when she looked up, she was to say it any day.

“Gibbert,” she said, “renews his visits to me, I must go home. I cannot endure to see him any longer. He is the picture of his baseness.”

“Thank you, my dear,” said the widow, “and I shall be glad to hear of your leaving him. I love you all.”

She meant to tell herself, too, her own story, and to begin with the girl who had been so much loved and so much abandoned at the farm, but so it happened that she never said a word more to the girl. The woman was taking shelter from a thousand sorrows in an old shed in the centre of a garden.

It was he who calmed her fears, who reassured about her the thick veil he had drawn over her face, and who, in the end, during her walk to the farm, had

By-and-by Clare returned to her father's house, a little graver than she used to be, but more unselfish, more considerate for others.

With Mrs. Leonard she had established a life-long friendship.

She was busy one morning selecting, from a pile of illustrated volumes for the young, the prettiest and most interesting as a birthday gift for little Berlie, his uncle's niece, when Mr. Valleton looked over her shoulder.

You can never have a really good complexion until the impurities are cleared from your blood. What you need is a thorough course of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which is absolutely free from all harmful ingredients and therefore perfectly safe.

The steamer Varma, carrying an excursion party down the river, was ashore at Salsbury Island on Saturday afternoon. The tug Reginald of the Calvin fleet was secured, and early pulled the steamer ashore. The afternoon was very busy, and it was almost impossible to see.

Don't buy a blood purifier because it is cheap. The best—the superior medicine, Ayer's Sarsaparilla, is the best blood purifier in the market. The ingredients of it are composed of the most expensive and medicinal ingredients that can be obtained.

At a meeting of Christ church society last evening D. H. Ashwell resigned his resignation, and Walter Allen was elected Presbyter. Worden in the place of Charles Worden, resigned. The male chorus had a practice last night. They are getting in shape for the entertainment of the visiting cyclists, and are practicing at Messrs. Park. The chorus have secured Mr. Eaton, of Toronto, who has a fine baritone voice, and will be a great acquisition to the already large number of good singers.

We have no hesitation in saying that Dr. D. Kellogg's Sarsaparilla is the best medicine for dysentery, diarrhoea, cholera, and all summer complaints. It cures, and promptly gives relief, and never fails to effect a positive cure. Mothers should never be without a bottle when their children are teething.

ELLIGENCE is printed and published by the INTELLIGENCE Printing and Publishing Company (Limited) by James G. Brown, resident in Ballerilla, at the Front St., south of Hotel M.

SPOTS AND BLEMISHES, CAUSED BY BAD BLOOD, CURED BY D.B.B.

Dear Sirs:—I am thankful to D.B.B. because I am looking younger and will look so. I have been troubled with spots and blemishes all over my body and face, and I took one bottle of your D.B.B. and I feel better than I have for years. I can positively say that before I had taken half of the second bottle I was perfectly cured.

I am so pleased to be strong and healthy again by the use of D.B.B. that I can strongly recommend it to every body.

LEONARD PETERSON.

A Man Made Happy.

Centuries ago, for five years I had been a sufferer with Rheumatism; the pain in the joints of my limbs was almost unbearable and I was doing it when I was only twenty years old. I would have been a cripple, and my life would have been a misery, and I was only a child. But with the use of two bottles of your D.B.B. I was cured. I was cured of the Rheumatism, and my life was made happy. I was cured of the Rheumatism, and my life was made happy. I was cured of the Rheumatism, and my life was made happy.

Signed, MATTHEW E. MARSH, General Member.

TITANS OF THE NORTH.

LIEUT. SCHWATKA WRITES OF GIANTIC ICEBERGS.

The Frozen Mountains That Inspire Awe As the North Pole—Tantalize Curiosity—Reveal the Terrible Dangers Which Attend the Summer Months.

An immense iceberg is one of the stupendous spectacles of nature, and can only be compared to other great objects of nature, as an earthquake, an avalanche, or some of earth's convulsions in presence of which any man standing alone is overpowered with the sense of his own weakness and insignificance. One who has ever seen an iceberg, a mighty iceberg, will not credit it with erratic movements or capers of an undisciplined nature, a sudden change of course, or a sudden change of direction. They will often very innocently move by double or treble the distance of the most grotesque character on the ocean, turning and breaking apart a quarter of a mile.

I have never witnessed but one such sight, and surely it looked as if the great waters of the deep were breaking up, and the end of all things had come. Immense waves were breaking over the ice, as if a hurricane had been racing for hours across the sea that last night before was as quiet as a mill pond. Great drying decks of ice were dashed down from dizzy heights above, and the slippery sides were covered with a mass of water from the waters that had been lifted up by the rapidly occurring mass.

CAUSED BY B.B.B.

Dear Sir:—I am thankful to B.B.B. because I am to-day strong and well through its wonderful blood purifying power. I was troubled with skin spots and blemishes all over my body and I took one bottle with great benefit, and can positively say that before I had taken half of the second bottle I was PERFECTLY CURED.

I am so pleased to be strong and healthy again by the use of B.B.B. that I can strongly recommend it to everybody.
